

ART DURHAM

June 2018

Festival guide & map

Pop-Up Riverside Outdoor Art Exhibition

Exhibition
16 to 17 June
10:00 - 16:00
FREE

A series of art shows along Durham's riverside will be hosted by North East based artists. Come and meet the artists who will be showcasing and selling their work.

Freemans Reach, Durham, DH1 1SL
(Outside HM Passport Office)

Be Creative

Drop-in Workshops

16 to 17 June
Try making sand sculpture with drop-in workshops 10:00 - 12:00, 13:00 - 14:15 and 14:30 - 16:00. Colourful Chameleons will be running ceramic tile painting workshops 10:00 - 15:00. Snow and Crow printmakers will offer you a chance to try etching 10:00 - 13:00 and 14:00 - 16:00.
Millennium Place, Durham, DH1 1WA

16 June, £1 per person
Storytelling and craft activities, 11:00 - 12:00
Clayport Library, Durham DH1 1WA

Betty Barnet Brown @ Gala Gallery

Exhibition
20 May to 17 June
Monday to Saturday, 10:00 - 20:30
Sunday, 14:30 - 20:30
FREE

Artist Betty Barnet Brown transforms the Gala Gallery into 'The Floating City of Haberdash', a theatrical textile installation.

Millennium Place, Durham, DH1 1WA

'Women, Art, Visibility'

Exhibition & workshop

11 June, exhibition, 16:15 - 19:00
12 June, workshop & exhibition, 10:30 - 15:00
FREE

Public exhibition and workshop led by Durham University students. To coincide with Vote 100, celebrating 100 years of (some) women winning the right to vote, this exhibition will present women taking control of their own representation featuring works from Durham University's Collection, alongside art by students.

Ustinov Room, Van Mildert College, Durham, DH1 3LH

For more Art Durham activities and events, go to:

www.durhambid.co.uk/durham-city-arts-festival

Art Durham is part of Durham City Arts Festival, a programme of city-wide creative activities taking place throughout June 2018, including music, theatre and art.

Check out music and theatre events at:

www.dfoa.co.uk
www.emptyshop.org/events/djazz

Art Durham is a collaborative project between Durham County Council and Durham University.

With thanks to:

Art & Design by:

Nasty Women North East 'I am a Nasty Woman because...'

Exhibition & Event

13 to 15 June, 11:00 - 16:00
14 June, late opening and refreshments, 18:00 - 20:00
Alington House
FREE

Inspired by Durham University's art collection, Nasty Women North East will present 'I am a nasty woman because...' exhibition and performance. Since the inauguration of Donald Trump, the Nasty Women Movement has expanded to a global art activism movement. This exhibition invites artists of the Nasty Women movement to express why they are Nasty Women and what it means to them.

Throughout the exhibition, visitors will have the opportunity to meet members of Nasty Women North East and create their own artwork.

Alington House, 4 North Bailey, Durham, DH1 3ET

The Bailey Gallery Art Tours

Exhibition

5 to 15 June
Daily tours start at 10:30 and 14:30
Meet at Palace Green Library
£2 per person, booking required

Led by a student guide, 'The Bailey Gallery' presents a unique opportunity to experience Durham University's art collections by visiting new displays in four of Durham's oldest colleges, Hatfield, St Chad's, St John's and St Cuthbert's Society while providing a behind-the-scenes insight into college life.

To book call Palace Green Library Reception on 0191 334 2932. If you have any access requirements, please make Palace Green Library Reception aware at the time of booking so we can plan your visit.

Palace Green Library, Durham, DH1 3RN

Chris Younger

Exhibition

4 to 17 June
FREE

Chris Younger is an artist, photographer and filmmaker living in rural County Durham and is currently Artist-in-Residence at Durham University's Josephine Butler College.

This exhibition will feature works from the artists ongoing practice, using photography to explore local landscapes and the interactions between people, places and nature over time.

Prince Bishops Shopping Centre, Durham, DH1 3UL

Creative Fuse 'Make In Durham'

Drop-in workshop

14 June
11:00 - 16:00
FREE

Can you help Durham make a thousand paper cranes in a day? Or create a community sand sculpture that represents the city through time? Want to discover how a stained glass window is made?

Come along for the day to watch and learn from some of the North East's talented artists, craftspeople, and makers at work. Have a go and develop a new creative skill and make some new and exciting art and craft together. This event is supported by Creative Fuse NE.

Durham Town Hall, Market Place, Durham, DH1 3NJ